

Monthly Digest on the AUPSC – February 2021

Automatic Heading TextDate | February 2021

Ghana assumed chairship of the African Union (AU) Peace and Security Council (PSC) in February. The monthly Programme of Work of the PSC initially envisaged only two substantive sessions and a meeting to consider the report on its activities and peace and security in Africa. However, Council convened an additional session around the end of the month, which was committed to the theme 'elections in Africa'.

Read Full Document