

Monthly Digest on the AUPSC – November 2021

Automatic Heading TextDate | November 2021

In November, Egypt chaired the African Union (AU) Peace and Security Council (PSC). Eight sessions were convened during the month. PSC's initial programme of work for the month envisaged six sessions. The revised programme of work which guided Council's activities throughout the month introduced few changes including the addition of substantive sessions.

Read Full Document